EEFA Report for Suffolk SACRE Meeting on 1st February 2019.

We warmly welcome SACRE's proposal for a closer working relationship with EEFA and are pleased to endorse its draft document on this relationship.

EEFA's work in arranging visits to schools and places of worship follows an interesting pattern. It seems that teachers like to wait until their school's budget has been allocated before venturing to arrange visits. Also, as schools may follow a similar syllabus/scheme of work, requests for visits to particular places of worship and for visiting speakers from the faiths may coincide. This is not an insurmountable problem but it does mean that the involvement of our team of speakers goes through peaks and troughs.

In the financial year since April 2018 we have served 46 schools and have 5 in the pipeline. (Details annexed).

We are keen to arrange multi school multi-faith days in rural areas similar to the one we ran in Occold last year. However, these days do require suitable venues.

EEFA is definitely interested in arranging visits to places of worship for teachers. We wonder whether these might be arranged in school half terms or at weekends so that they can occur in the day time without disrupting the school timetable. We envisage that teachers would sign up for these visits which could be free of charge but with a 'penalty fee' of £10 for non-attendance. Would this work?

We are also considering arranging talks from significant faith representatives to teachers in our Multi-Faith Centre in the early evening or in half terms. This would be in addition to our new Religious Literacy course.

We notice that the description of our speakers as tutors may sound too academic. We are wondering whether the title faith ambassador would be more appropriate.

In addition to the above, Liz Bennett has been continuing to facilitate "Open the Box" and "Open the Tent".
