

The Suffolk Standing Advisory Council on Religious Education (SACRE)

CONSTITUTION AND PROCEDURES

A. The Statutory Framework

A1 STATUS

Under section 390 [1] of the 1996 Education Act, the local authority has a statutory duty to constitute a standing advisory council on religious education.

A2 PURPOSES

Section 391 [1] requires SACREs to advise the local authority on matters connected with:

- (i) religious worship in community schools or in foundation schools which do not have a religious character, and
- (ii) religious education given in accordance with an agreed syllabus.

These may be matters the authority refers to SACRE or others as the council may see fit. They include, in particular, methods of teaching, the choice of materials and the provision of training for teachers (391 [2]).

SACRE must also carry out the functions conferred on them by section 394-5, that is, the determination of cases in which the requirement for Christian Collective Worship is not to apply and the consequent review of such determinations. The requirements and procedures for determinations are also given in these sections.

A3 MEMBERSHIP

Section 390 (2-5) requires SACRE to consist of groups of persons appointed by the local authority as representative members of the following:

- A. such Christian denominations and other religions and denominations of such religions as, in the opinion of the authority, will appropriately reflect the principal religious traditions in the area;
- B. the Church of England;
- C. such associations representing teachers as, in the opinion of the authority, ought to be represented, having regard to the circumstances of the area; and
- D. the local authority.

The numbers appointed to each group should be consistent with the efficient discharge of the group's functions and reflect broadly the proportionate strength of a denomination or religion in the area (392 [2]). The LA should take reasonable steps to ensure that a SACRE member is, and continues to be, representative of their particular religion, denomination or association (393 [3]).

SACRE may also include co-opted members. Such members may only be co-opted by appointed members of SACRE. A person co-opted as a member of the council shall hold office on such terms as may be determined by the members co-opting him (392 [5]).

Members may resign at any time (392 [6]).

A4 VOTING AND OTHER PROCEDURES

On any question to be decided by SACRE only the 4 representative groups (see A3 above) are entitled to vote, each group having a single vote.

A5 AGREED SYLLABUS REVIEW

The representative groups on SACRE, except the Local Authority group, may at any time require a review of the current Agreed Syllabus for Religious Education. Each group has a single vote on the issue. (390 [3-4])

On written notification of such a requirement, the LA must convene an Agreed Syllabus conference to reconsider the Agreed Syllabus. (390 [5])

A6 ANNUAL REPORT

SACRE must publish an annual report on how they have exercised their functions during the previous year and a copy sent to the Qualifications and Curriculum Authority. (390 [6-7])

The council's report must

- i. specify any matters on which SACRE has given advice to the authority,
- ii. broadly describe the nature of the advice given, and
- iii. where matters were not referred to SACRE by the authority, give their reasons for offering such advice.

A7 PUBLIC ACCESS TO MEETINGS AND DOCUMENTS

SACRE meetings must be open to the public, with prescribed exceptions (397 [1-3]).

- i. Notice should be given of the time and place of meetings.
- ii. Copies of agendas and reports must be available for inspection by members of the public at cost price.

A8 VALIDITY OF PROCEEDINGS

The validity of any proceedings of the SACRE or of any representative group within the SACRE shall not be affected by either:-

- i. any vacancy amongst representative members;
- ii. any assertion that a representative does not at the time represent the denomination or associations for which he/she was appointed.

B. Locally Determined Procedures

Section 392 of the 1996 Education Act provides a SACRE with the power to regulate its own proceedings in relation to many areas of the statutory framework.
