

National Professional Qualification (NPQ) for SENCOs

Complete the new mandatory SENCO qualification in your local area

The Eastern Partnership UK (SEND) brings our considerable expertise from 15 years of running the National Award for SEN Coordination (NASENCO) to this new and innovative mandatory qualification for new-to-role and aspiring SENCOs.

- 18-month duration
- blended delivery model
- strong emphasis on coaching from SEND Leaders in your local area
- local groups through which networking opportunities will be promoted
- optional accredited pathway to the Advanced SENCO Award and onwards to an MEd

This qualification:

- meets the requirement for all new-to-role SENCOs to successfully complete the NPQ for SENCOs within three years of coming into post
- is also open to aspiring SENCOs
- aims to build knowledge and confidence in the leadership of SEND at both strategic and operational levels
- follows the highly regarded delivery cycle of Activate, Teach, Practice and Apply established by our partner CEFEL
- curriculum content addresses all eight standards outlined in the NPQ for SENCOs Framework (2024) and is facilitated throughout by highly respected SEND experts

Looking for accreditation? Our partnership with the University of Bolton means the NPQ for SENCOs can become accredited at master's level and give you a route through to the MEd Professional Development in Education.

“ A big thank you; your organisation has been excellent from start to finish and I've felt supported by all.
